RE: International Heritage, Inc.
Case No: 98-02675-5-ATS
Chapter 7
Claim No.: 003342
Amount: $41,100.00

Dear People:

I am writing asking for reconsideration of lost wages from International Heritage Incorporated. Following is an itemization of my lost wages. $21,500 in weekly wages; $19,000 lost wages from Pin Rank—one month as Presidential Director @$1500 and seven months at Ambassador @$2500; $600 for unpaid Flex Plan for consumables. There were also products that I bought and did not receive.

I do realize that you need written proof for lost wages and I only have my list that grew longer each week as I wrote them down. So, I am requesting the $4,300 of wages earned within 90 days before the bankruptcy filing. I am submitting copies of my parents' calendar as proof of wages for the months of September and October, 1998. This will show some of my earned wages, more than the allowed $4,300. My wages are written in the Saturday column. See week 37, September 12th, Brendan $2,500; week 41, October 10th, Brendan $2,500; week 42, October 17th, Brendan $2,500. I swear that this calendar is authentic and has been kept intact since September of 1998. Information was collected from IDCC, our International Heritage Incorporated communication system. We were able to listen to how much our earnings were for each center we had week by week. My mother listened to my information weekly and recorded it on her calendar.

My thanks to you,

Brendan Bisbey
